

“What’s Your Bag?” (April 2 through April 25, 2010)

Opening reception: Friday, April 2, 7-10 pm

Closing reception: Sunday, April 25, 3-6 pm

Look around. Bags are in our culture. Your everyday life does not exist without bags of some kind. You usually don’t go from point A to point B without a bag of some sort. Whether you are bringing food home, taking work home, travelling away from home, you are most likely using a bag. Shopping bags, handbags, man bags, backpacks, airbags, sleeping bags, saddle bags, money bags, suitcases, satchels, sacks, etc.

This show explores the bag in any form. Think “out of the bag” and present bags in art. The bag as art. Art made of bags. Art made from bags. Bags in your artwork. Art made on bags. The possibilities are endless.

THIS SHOW IS OPEN TO ALL. There is no official juror but acceptance will be at the Curators’ discretion. Fiber, clay, paper, paint, photography, glass, wood, metal and all other media accepted and expected. Artists are permitted to enter up to 3 pieces for the show. For participating artists there will also be a marketplace within the gallery where you may stock up to 10 items for cash and carry sales.

Submission drop off dates are Sunday, March 21st 6-8 pm and Monday, March 22nd 5-8 pm

Opening reception is Friday, April 2, 7-10 pm. Closing reception is Sunday April 25, 3-6 pm

SHOW ENTRY FEES: Del Ray Artisan members: $5 for up to 3 pieces. Non-members: $5 each piece. Artists participating in marketplace: $10 per artist. Del Ray Artisans (DRA) does not take commission, but requests 20% of all sales in show and marketplace. Questions can be answered by curators Theresa Kulstad (703) 283-0399 or tkulstad@verizon.net and Karen Schmitz at schmityk@yahoo.com or (703)317-9340.

Any 2D or 3D is acceptable to be submitted, but all 2D pieces are required to have proper screw eye and wire for hanging. 3D items must be ready for professional display. Artist must supply special display materials if required. All works must be original pieces not previously shown at DRA.

There will be special events and ongoing related programs during this show. For updates, visit us on Facebook and get more detailed info at www.thederayartisans.org.
