About Del Ray Artisans

Del Ray Artisans (DRA), founded in 1992, is funded, managed, and operated by Arts Resource Foundation, a 501(c)(3) public membership organization created to support community-based art organizations and to promote art crafts as a development resource. DRA hosts art events, exhibitions, lectures, art classes and workshops for fine and functional art. DRA's mission is to reach out to the whole community to build a stronger, more vital place to live and work.

About Ted Eicher

Ted was an active DRA member until his sudden death on October 24, 1997. He grew up on a Minnesota farm, earned his Masters Degree in economics at the University of Minnesota, served in the military and retired after 29 years at the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture. He then took up wood craft while studying art at NOVA Community College. He offered his art and companionship in nursing homes and jails, and to at-risk youth; and he also tutored in schools and shelters. His wife continues as an active DRA member today.

About Ted Eicher Memorial Art Scholarship Fund

DRA envisions the Fund will grow and continue to provide support to selected students from T.C. Williams High School, who goes on to higher education in Art. DRA has provided scholarship funds through the Alexandria Scholarship Fund since the first year the Eichers Fund was awarded in 2000.
