

Celebrating the Art of Making . . .

July 2015

The Well-Crafted Word

a monthly publication of Del Ray Artisans . . . since 1992 www.TheDelRayArtisans.org

Register Now! June 29-July 17, 2015

Welcome to Del Ray Artisans' version of summer camp for grown-ups! Choose from 30+ workshops and events in the first three weeks of July! GUAC workshops explore performance art (dance & theater) and visual art (drawing, jewelry-making, mixed media, painting, paper crafting, photography, polymer clay, print-making, resin, and upcycling), give you a "creative boost" and help you prepare for exhibits (writing an artist's statement, framing). There is even a panel discussion on social media to help you communicate with others about your work.

Grown-Ups Art Camp is also offering a "Spectrum Arts" workshop specifically for adults on the autism spectrum to create drawings, paintings or collages in order to experiment with new materials and subjects. Scholarship applications are available; contact the GUAC coordinator, Tracy Wilkerson, at GUAC@TheDelRayArtisans.org for more information.

Sign up for as many workshops as you want! Register now to reserve your spot. Details and registration are available at the gallery and at: www.TheDelRayArtisans.org/GUAC

Additionally, the gallery will be hosting an exhibit of artwork from the GUAC instructors, as well as an art supplies yard sale. Stop by to shop during workshop hours (please be respectful of the workshops) because regular gallery hours are not in effect in July.

Youth Art Camp: "The Amazing Race: An Art Odyssey"

Spaces still available; Register now!

Youth ages 8-14 years old are invited to spend one week creating art and learning creative techniques, followed by a one-day, public gallery exhibit the Saturday after camp.

The theme for this summer's camp is "The Amazing Race: An Art Odyssey." Campers will travel around the globe on an exciting art odyssey. The art and artists native to a variety of regions will inspire our travelers to design and create unique works of art. The only limit will be our imagination as we set off to visit some of the world's most artistic hot spots to experience art history, culture, and a variety of kinesthetic creative processes. Some destinations include: France, Australia, China, Russia, Germany, and more. We will arrive back to the USA just in time to unpack our suitcases and display our worldly creations on the walls of the gallery.

- Choose WEEK ONE: July 20-24, 2015 from 9am-4pm daily (gallery show on Saturday, July 25, 1-3pm) or WEEK TWO: July 27-31, 2015 from 9am-4pm daily (gallery show on Saturday, August 1, 1-3pm)
- Fee: $300 per child. All art supplies, lunch and snacks are provided. Scholarships available.

A Very Silly Man

During a special SocialLights program on June 16, member Guy Jones began with a dance number, then gave a marvelous talk about his artwork and artistic journey to a full house. Guy stated that had it not been for Del Ray Artisans and past archivist John Hiller's photos of Guy's art on Flickr, he would not have gotten the children's book illustration job, nor be at the Torpedo Factory today. With the medical issues Guy has faced, he is an example of how art can help heal the body, mind, and soul.

From the President

We are all about Summer fun at the gallery! Have you seen the full line up for GUAC? Check out the article in this issue of The Well-Crafted Word and the class list on our website. Consider registering for one or two classes. I am excited and will be teaching a few workshops myself. Also, don't forget the new shows coming up, including Au Naturel in August and ALTARS: Religious Rituals in September. Check out the Calls for Entry online and submit a piece! Also, the Under a Summer Sun show at the Animal Welfare League of Alexandria is on view now through September 27.

Finally, I would like to give a special thanks to Jeanette Lukens for her service this year as Youth Programs Director. Also thank you to all who have helped with shows, the newsletter and cards, Facebook and Twitter, maintained the gardens, photographed events for the archives, and who just keep us going in general. Thank you. I hope you have a wonderful summer. ~ Kim Joy, President@TheDelRayArtisans.org

Call for Entry: Au Naturel

Au Naturel celebrates the natural and exposed, the pure and untouched, the bare and raw, and the candid. Share your interpretation of "natural," whether it is a figure, object, emotion or feeling; an uncompleted project or unintentional step in the process. Think of expressions with no covering or filter; objects or beings in full exposure; and objects that are in their truest and most candid form and natural state. Art can be in 2-D or 3-D format and ready to hang or display.

This Call for Entry is an online form. All entries must be received digitally. The deadline for digital submissions is Sunday, July 26, 2015. Contact the curator, Tamara Wilkerson, with any questions at Programs@TheDelRayArtisans.org. The entry form is online at: www.TheDelRayArtisans.org/CFE

Building Bridges with Six Degrees Consortium Recap

In June, the gallery was filled with artworks featuring countries, cultures, and peoples from around the world. Artists from both Del Ray Artisans and Mississippi's Six Degrees Consortium joined forces for the collaborative exhibit, Building Bridges, to commemorate the tenth anniversary of Hurricane Katrina. In a special artist's talk, guest curator Lori K. Gordon shared her story of how she found the positive in such a devastating event and let it strengthen her. She provided inspiration for the packed-house at the gallery.

At the opening reception, Gordon presented an artwork from The Arts Hancock County to Del Ray Artisans in honor of our continued friendship and in appreciation of Southern Surge, the show Del Ray Artisans organized in March 2007 to help support artists in the gulf coast after the natural disaster.

Curators Lori K. Gordon, Linda Elliff, and Barb Boatman presented the Curator Awards to Claudia Ringel and Kayal Dhabalia of Del Ray Artisans and Michelle Allee of Mississippi. Also, the curators send special thanks to Marge Holtz, Chris Vinh, Josh Oliveira, Kathy Turner, Ron Blank, Gloria Vestal, and as always, Lesley Hall.

Lori K. Gordon discusses her personal and artistic journey since Hurricane Katrina.

A Very Special Thanks

We say goodbye to our wonderful Youth Programs Director, Jeanette Lukens, who is moving out of state. She has done a great job in a short amount of time. We will all miss her! Thank you, Jeanette, and all the best in the future. We hope you will visit in the future if you are back in Del Ray.

Eileen O'Brien and Linda Mierke coordinate several ongoing off-site exhibits for Del Ray Artisans' Gallery Without Walls (GWW) program. Eileen has been curating this successful program for several years now. She does it all, including writing calls for entry, negotiating with exhibit venues, hanging artwork and assisting DRA members. Thanks to Eileen's hard work, DRA currently has 3 separate exhibit locations.

Recently, Linda began working with Eileen as a site coordinator. Juggling several exhibits at once, Linda manages to stay cheerful, calm, and helpful. Those of us who have exhibited at these sites, know just how much time and energy Eileen and Linda put in for DRA. Your hard work and dedication do not go unnoticed. We appreciate you and we couldn't do it without you!

Additional appreciation to volunteers:

- Suzanne Tillman, Laura Whitaker, and Susan Pennington for helping the office staff with a variety of miscellaneous tasks and small projects.
- Ann Marie Grills for tirelessly stuffing, folding, sealing, labeling, stamping and mailing 60+ The Well-Crafted Word newsletters each month.
- Ellyn Ferguson for consistently checking Del Ray Artisans voice mailbox for years!
- Maxine Whyte for her past volunteer time on the Web Posting Committee; and Lew Smith for recently taking over Maxine's posting tasks. The Web Posting Committee benefits us all by helping to spread the word about DRA shows and events.

DEL RAY ARTISANS – ART EXHIBIT – OPEN TO ALL ARTISTS

AU NATUREL

August 7-30, 2015

Opening Reception: Friday, August 7 from 7-9pm

Au Naturel celebrates the natural and exposed, the pure and untouched, the bare and raw, and the candid. We invite you to share work that expresses your interpretation of what "natural" looks like to you. Is it a figure, object, an emotion or feeling, or is it environmental? Is it an uncompleted project or an unintentional step in the process? Is natural vulnerable or powerful... or both? Think of expressions with no cover or filter; objects or beings in full exposure; and objects that are in their truest and most candid form and natural state.

Art can be in 2-D or 3-D format and ready to hang or display with wire and screw eyes, mounting and/or display stand, framed, matted, or with edges finished. We cannot show work that is not ready for exhibition.

CALL FOR ENTRY

ALTARS: Religious Rituals

September 4 – 27, 2015

Opening Reception: Friday, September 4 from 7-9pm

What comes to mind when you think of altars? They could reflect places of heavenly worship or nether worldly sacrifice. They can be simple raised platforms or elaborate structures used for religious ceremonies. Whether you think of them literally such as for worship or sacrifice, or figuratively for things given priority at the cost of something else—perhaps work over family—altars are used in varying religious rituals around the world. Del Ray Artisans (DRA) and Art Latin American Collective Project (ALACP) have teamed up to present this unique artistic challenge to their members. Artists, dig deep into your imaginations! Explore the use of altars in religious rituals worldwide and create your interpretations in any and every form of media.
